Replacement Shelving & Hard-to-Find Refrigeration Parts

Independent and regional grocers often face a common challenge: finding replacement shelving and legacy refrigeration parts for equipment that is still performing but no longer fully supported by manufacturers.

Through our partnership with Supermarket Parts Warehouse (SMPW), we provide retailers with access to specialized grocery-specific parts, replacement shelving, and hard-to-source components that help retailers maintain their stores, control costs, and avoid unnecessary equipment replacement.

RETAILER BENEFITS

- Fill Critical Assortment Gaps
  Access replacement shelving, legacy refrigeration components, and hard-to-find parts for refrigerated cases from leading manufacturers, helping maintain store appearance and merchandising effectiveness.
- Save More on Every Order
  Benefit from exclusive UNFI pricing, savings of 30% or more on most parts, and freight optimization designed to reduce your total acquisition costs.
- Fast Fulfillment to Minimize Downtime
  Thousands of parts are in stock and ready to ship, helping retailers complete repairs quickly, reduce disruptions, and keep refrigerated cases operating and selling.
- Grocery-Specific Expertise & Customer Support
  Work with specialists who understand refrigerated cases, legacy equipment, and grocery operations, making it easier to identify and source the right part the first time.
- Simple, Reliable Sourcing
  A streamlined ordering experience, broad product compatibility, and high-quality replacement components provide a convenient solution for refrigeration and display case parts.
